

King

Hello. Hello. How are you? We're glad you came our way.
Our God is great. He cares for us. Let's share His love today.
It's time to learn a new word. So let's all watch and see.
The letters are about to drop. They'll spell it perfectly.

And the word is... King.
A King is a ruler

Dunt Dunt Dunt Dunt Dunt – Da! I present the Royal Son
His Excellency King Charles the Magnificent One!
Thank you my loyal subjects. You may each kiss my ring.
May I remind you when I'm here, you kneel before the King.
Subject Kate, go clean my room. And make my royal bed.
Subject Gail, my royal snack – jelly on royal bread.
Subject Kate, shine my shoes and polish my royal crown.
Subject Gail, must comb my hair and wash my royal gown.
King Charles the whatever. Please, stop your rambling.
And listen to what Jesus said. For He's the greatest King!
To be the first, become the last. That's what Jesus said.
The greatest one is humble and serves everyone instead.
I think they've got a point, Chuck. For Christ our heavenly King.
He didn't bark out orders. No, He ruled by suffering.
Oh ya, I guess your right, guys. Christ died for me and you.
And He wants everyone to know. So, let's serve others, too.

King - "You are a king, then!" said Pilate. (John 18:37)

It's great to learn together and help each other see...
How just a moment in God's Word can bless our family.
