

Not

Hey, Hey, Hey, we're glad you're here. Thank you for stopping by.
We're happy you can spend some time. And here's the reason why...

Here we are – the month of May. And “N’s” our letter now.
We’ll spell a brand new word each week and I’ll show you just how.

And our word is... Not.
Not means no way

I'm not going to clean my room. I will not. Nope. NO WAY!
I'm not a slave to anyone. I don't care what you say.
I'm not the one who told you. So, don't get mad at me.
But, your room is an awful mess. As anyone can see.
Well, that's the way I like it. Besides, I just don't care what anybody else might think. It's not their room – so there!
I think we have a problem. Temptation's what I mean.
Chuck's mom told him to clean his room. But, he's not listening.
And that's a great temptation; to not do what we're told.
Chuck better think this through again, before he acts so bold.
Yes, let's take just a moment. Now just give this a thought.
Lead us not into temptation. Yes, that's what Jesus taught.
It means that God will help us; that He is always there to guide us when we're tempted. For, He hears our every prayer.
Hey, thanks for the reminder. It's not right what I said.
It's just not good to disobey. I'll clean my room instead.

Not - Lead us not into temptation. (Matthew 6:13)

It's great to learn together and help each other see...
How just a moment in God's Word can bless our family.
